Thanks all. I'll cancel today's meeting. Next week's meeting has been canceled, too, because of a conflict, so that means our next meeting as a group (with Tom and Bob) will be September 22.

Please send any additional edits or comments on the table to me and Maureen by COB September 19.

Hi Kacee,

Welcome back to you and Maureen!

I am good with waiting for the more thorny discussions when Tom/Bob are back. Refining the table doesn't seem useful in a vacuum??

When is our next meeting with Tom/Bob?

T.

Hi All -

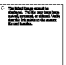

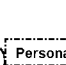

We are scheduled to meet again on Thursday, Sept. 8.

Both Tom and Bob are out of the office this week and won't be available for the Sept. 8 meeting. Maureen and I are happy to lead the meeting on Thursday to continue refining the table if you think that is needed. Please let us know if you think that would be helpful.

We would like to defer discussion of the additional issues (science/science policy line and using third party assessments) until Tom and Bob are back in the office.

Thanks,

Thank you, Maureen!

I apologize, I'd started wordsmithing last weekend but didn't complete in time for Monday's meeting. So I added some wordsmithing to the new version of the table here.

Also, I looked at the outline briefly and had one thought that I added to this version. Looks like a good start!

Subject: Innovations in RA table update

Hi all -

Following up on our last meeting, for those that were not in attendance - we had a good discussion on the draft table, in large part related to the fact that we are all coming at this from a different perspective so some of the cells would mean different things to different people. It was decided to refocus and simplify the table, and to be very consistent in word choice throughout the cells. Discussion also focused on whether it was the type, amount or range of data that matters.

Personal Matters / Ex. 6

I've attached both a clean and track changes version of the revised table. This definitely still needs some wordsmithing, so if people want to have a meeting next week in Tom and Bob's absence to discuss, I can set that up. Alternatively, we can work through email and compile all comments for the 9/8 meeting.
